

18th Century Survivors in Manhattan

From a talk given for Bloomingdale Aging in Place by Anthony Bellon - 6-22-2023

- 1: Fraunces Tavern Museum - 54 Pearl Street - 1719
- 2: Ye Olde Coffee House - 105 Broad Street - 1746
- 3: Morris Jumel Mansion - 65 Jumel Terrace - 1765
- 4: St Paul's Chapel - Broadway at Fulton Street - 1766
- 5: Captain Joseph Rose House - 273 Water Street - 1773
- 6: Dyckman Farmhouse Museum - Broadway at 204 Street - 1783
- 7: Edward Mooney House - 18 Bowery - 1789
- 8: James B. Watson House - 7 State Street - 1793
- 9: The Bridge Café Building - 279 Water Street - 1794
- 10: Nicholas W. Stuyvesant House - 44 Stuyvesant Street - 1795
- 11: Blackwell House - Roosevelt Island - 1796
- 12: 134-136 Bowery - 1798
- 13: St. Mark's in the Bowery - East 10th Street @ 2nd Avenue - 1799
- 14: Mount Vernon Hotel Museum - 421 East 61st Street - 1799
- 15: Gracie Mansion - Carl Schurz Park - 1799
- 16: Isaac-Hendricks House - 77 Bedford Street - 1800

- - ALSO - -

Two wrought iron fences:

Bowling Green - 1773 & St Peter's Chelsea (346 W 20th St) - 1788

Several surviving graveyards